Dear Frank,

Every week we study vocabulary words at the Marshall Islands High School College Club. Last week, one of the words from the TOEFL list was "benevolent". We now know what this word means and we know that you are benevolent. Thank you for your kindness and generosity. Because of you, we are all registered to take the Test of English as a Foreign Language on Saturday, January 16, 2010. The $160 registration fee is a lot of money for students from a developing country and the money you have donated to us will make our dreams of attending college come true.

In our language, we say komoltata which means thank you very much.

Komoltata, Frank, from all of us at the Marshall Islands High School Mentorship Program,

Dolse Shoniber, Niten Anni, John Lokiar, Stella Marie Kibin, Merisa Debrum, Cassailis Jarom, Tracy Oliver, Fred Hilai and Gatolo Domnick
